SUPER QUICK TIP

When searching for obituaries, try including “beloved” or “dear” or “loving” in your search criteria. These are commonly used words in obituaries and will save you time in finding the newspaper’s obituary section.

I am always late. My ancestors arrived on the June Flower.

Quirky Old Newspaper Ad

A Message to All My Fellow Ancestor Hunters:

Every ancestor has a story and they deserve to be remembered. If we don't write their story, who will?

Make sure that you check out the new "By Location" feature at The Ancestor Hunt Website:

Rather than having to choose a category first, and then choosing a state or province that you wish to research, now you can select a state or province and then select the category.

You can also search for links to collections in a specific location. For example, if you are looking for collections in Pulaski County, Arkansas, enter "Pulaski County Arkansas" in the search box.

Remember that by using this feature, you are searching for links to online collections; you are not searching for records in the collections.

You can access the By Location feature by clicking on By Location
