

Ethnic, National and International Genealogy Societies

Some of the great places to start researching for genealogy records are in genealogical societies. There are many international and national societies for different nationalities and ethnicities. Each society has collections and records available that will aid in your research. Some are accessible for non-members and even more are accessible for those who have purchased a membership. Below are some of the major genealogical societies, identified by nationality or ethnicity. These societies have an abundance of online resources for members and non-members alike and some have great libraries.
